GLENN RIDGE NOTES.

The second concert of the Ladies' Vocal Club was given on last Friday evening. The Club showed marked improvement in their work and the large and brilliant audience evinced their appreciation by warm attention and enthusiastic applause. The Club was assisted by Mr. Gwilym Miles, baritone, and Mr. Hans Kronold, violinist, both of whom were artists of a high order. Many thanks are due the ladies and their able leader, Mr. J. Appleton Wade, for the fine musical treat enjoyed on Friday evening, such a concert seldom being heard outside of large cities. A reception and dance followed at Glen Ridge Hall which was largely attended, and thus closed the second and most successful season of the Club. Long may it flourish is the wish of its many friends.

Elizabeth and Eva F. DeGress will sail for Vera Cruz on Saturday, April 25th. They will reside with friends in Mexico.

A musical was given by the pupils of Miss Mabel Morris on Saturday, April the eighth, at the residence of Mrs. C. F. White, Birkwood Avenue. Miss Morris was assisted by Miss Elliot, soprano, of the First Church, Bloomfield, and Mrs. Charles Morris, pianist. The program was interesting and the pupils showed great intelligence in the rendering of their selections. Miss Morris is to be congratulated upon the successful work of her class.

Patents of Midland Ave., returned early last week from Lakewood, and on Monday of this week left for California.

The Right Rev. Bishop Starkey administered the right of confirmation to a large class in Christ Episcopal Church last Sunday.

The "Clubs" met on Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. F. J. Cooney. A paper on "Modern Scandinavian Literature" was read by Mrs. Goodwin.

Miss Ella Northup, who has sung soprano for some time in the quartette at the Congregational Church, will occupy the position but one Sunday longer, as on the first of May she goes to her former home at Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. Adams, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Harris, of Hillside Ave.

A "May Dance" will be given during the first part of next month. Among the patronesses are: Mrs. E. S. Mages, Mrs. H. C. Harris, Mrs. A. S. Niven, Mrs. Harris Under, Mrs. J. W. Reddell.

S. O. V. Camp 9.

The entertainment given by Wm. S. Pierson Camp No. 9, S. O. V., on Friday evening, April 17th, was a big success, it being the best of its kind ever given in Central Hall. The programme which was very finely arranged, started with the Crystal Quartette, keeping the audience as were the comical songs by the Howard Bros., two great Dutch comedians. Then came the musical trio, Messrs. Drew Bros. and Jaeger, in some very fine selections, which were well rendered. After them came the Marsh Bros., in their Irish songs and humor which were received by the audience with great delight. The Roseville Club were next on the programme and they furnished some very fine music, the playing of Mr. Wetach on the dulcimer being a very noticeable feature. After them came Prof. Morien, the magician, in his great box trick of getting inside of a box after it has been tied with stout ropes and a canvas covering put around it by gentlemen from the audience. This is probably one of the greatest tricks performed on the stage to-day and it was appreciated as such by the audience. The Crystal Quartette came on again and came in for their usual amount of applause.

The closing performance of the evening was in the shape of the howling success, "Our New Judge," in which W. E. Eastman distinguished himself as "Judge Grabenheimer," keeping the audience in roars of laughter by his comical sayings. A. V. Sheppard also did finely as "Officer French," as did G. H. Schmidt as "Lawyer Blowhard," and J. E. Batchelor as "Lawyer Gettner." All the other parts were well rendered. This being the first entertainment ever given by this lodge, the young men deserve a great deal of credit, especially the Entertainment Committee, for the way in which they arranged it. The Committee consisted of L. E. Batchelor, G. H. Schmidt, Henry Raab and A. V. Sheppard.

Orange Athletic Club.

The Base Ball game on Saturday, April 25th, at Orange oval, Grove Street Station, D. & W. Railroad, between the Orange Athletic Club and Princeton University, promises to be a fine exhibition. The teams will be made up as follows:

Orange: Thomas, C. F. Princeton: Wa. d. S. S.

Avil, R. F. Easton, F.

Joeckel, I. B. Altman, R. F.

Smith, D. B. Kelly, I. B.

Bennett, G. Bradley, C. F.

Horner or Place, L. F. Wilson, L. F.

Greengard, S. B. Smith, C.

Arbuthnot, S. B. Guntzer, S. B.

Westervelt or Schoonhuf, P. Sanky, S. B.

As this is the only game that these teams will play this season, Orange will do her best to win, in order to get satisfaction for last year's defeat by Princeton. Games will be called at 4 P. M. Trains leave, foot of Barclay and Christopher Sts., N. Y., 3:30, 3:00, and 3:30 P. M., stopping at the grounds. Reserved seats for the grand stand now on sale at the Club House, Halstead St., East Orange.

Dandruff forms when the glands of the skin are weakened, and if neglected, baldness is sure to follow. Hall's Hair Restorer is the best preventive.

TROUBLE ABOUT POLES.

Have Citizens any Rights as to their Trees and Property in the Streets?

A gang of men employed by the Newark Electric Light Company got into trouble over the erection of a pole on James R. Wolven's property on Benson street Wednesday morning. Mr. Wolven objected to the destruction of a small shade tree which stood near the spot where it was proposed to locate a pole, and he succeeded in convincing the superintendent of construction that the property was mostly vacant of houses, was the proper place for putting up poles. They commenced to dig on that side, but Committeemen Powers, who has a particular grudge against Wolven, ordered that the pole be put in front of the Wolven property, as at first planned. Mr. Wolven had in the meantime gone away, and Mrs. Wolven sent for her brother, William Poe, who came and assisted her in stopping the work. Mr. Poe placed himself over and in the excavation, and hindered the men. The foreman ordered them to shove Poe away, but they had been in such scrapes before, and told the foreman to do it himself. He undertook to drive Poe out by intimidation, putting his hand on his hip-pocket as though he would draw a pistol. Poe was just much scared and shoved one man with his elbow. Mr. Wolven had been telephoned to and arrived while the trouble was in progress. He charged the foreman with trespass and Officer Hummel arrested him and took him to the police station. Justice Hall released the man upon his statement that the company had authority from the township to put poles wherever they pleased. Under police protection the men resumed work and planted the pole.

Yesterday retaliation was indulged in from police headquarters by getting out a warrant for the arrest of William Poe, for "assaulting" one of the pole diggers.
